

I would strongly be opposed to overturning this law. The difference in our home is totally amazing since signing up with the Do Not Call. We value our privacy and appreciate how well this works.